FARED IN PANIC OF 1837These times of corners on eggs and flour by speculators and owners of refrigerator plants recall the days of panic in 1836-37, when banks closed, and even the government was unable to meet its obligations. Coal was $10 a ton and flour $12 a barrel, and so great was the distress that a meeting was held in City Hall Park, the notice reading: "Bread, wheat, rent, fuel! The voice of the people shall be heard!"Eli Hart, in Washington street, who was holding 60,000 barrels of flour for higher prices, was denounced and a mob attacked his warehouse and destroyed much of his stock after he had refused to sell to the people at the old price.Then when the militia arrived, the crowd visited Herriek & Co.'s warehouse, and there they were outwitted by a very smart clerk, who said:
"Boys, don't destroy the flour, but let everyone who can shoulder a barrel of flour and take it home to his family." To this all agreed, and hundreds of homes were immediately amply supplied. Herriek saved much of his stock, and quiet was restored to the town.—New York Tribune.BUY YOUR COAL NOW
